Shore Things This Month

SPEAKER: KAREN THOMAS WITH AAA TRAVELERS INFORMATION ON UPCOMING TRIPS

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14TH AT 1:00PM IN THE FORUM

Trip discussion on the coach trips we currently have: Nashville, Savannah and Asheville/Biltmore and our Holland America rep will accompany me and he will present Alaska Land & Sea Journeys as well as New England/Nova Scotia.

AUTHOR TALK: DIANE PASCOE "LIFE ISN'T PERFECT, BUT MY LIPSTICK IS!"

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17TH AT 4:00PM IN THE FORUM

Diane Pascoe was at the supermarket checkout counter when Norman-a clerk so fidgety that he was probably resisting the urge to scratch himself-casually mentioned the savings she'd earned with her senior discount. There just was one teensy problem: Diane hadn't revealed her age or asked for a senior discount. Norman-with-an-itch had guessed her age and decided she was...what? Sixty? A hundred and two? Come down and meet the fun Diane Pascoe who when isn't writing, is managing her lipstick addiction-for which, thankfully, there is no cure. (Her favorite shade is Hot Coral #712) Books will be available to purchase.

ALL ABOARD! THE MODULAR RAILROAD WATERFRONT DISPLAY

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH (SET UP AFTER LUNCH TIME)

The display will take about two hours to set up and the volunteers would be happy to have any of our modeler folks and other interested people watch the set-up process. Once operational, Mark will be available to say a few words about the Museum and Wilmington railroading. Display will close at 5pm.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20TH AT 10:00AM IN THE FORUM

Anyone interested will be able to control one of the operating trains and run them around the layout. We will have people available to answer modeling questions or questions about the Museum or railroading in general. Come have a little fun!
